Seek Re-Allocation of County Tax Funds

COUNTY ELECTION IS CALLED BY THE COURT

A county wide election for re-allocation of the tax rate to comply with a Constitutional Amendment passed in 1944 will be called by the Commissioners Court.

At the time of the passage of the amendment the Legislature provided that counties by local vote could comply with the terms to re-allocate funds. The unequal division of jury and road and bride levies is the main problem at issue. Many counties despite their failure to qualify to legally re-allocate funds made the division as they deemed necessary without legal authority.

The election to be held in Milam county is nothing less than setting up legal basis for re-allocation and in no way does it increase taxes.

County Attorney Morrison has prepared the program for the election. The specified items in the tax rate as laid down in the constitution of 1876 is as follows:

General fund	25c
Road and Bridge Fund	30c
Jury Fund	15c
Court House and Jail	5c
TOTAL	75c

Under the proposed re-allocation of the rate the money will be appropriated as follows:

General Fund	25c
Road and Bridge Fund	40c
Jury Fund	5c
Court House and Jail	5c
TOTAL	75c

The only change to be made is to take 10c from the jury fund and place it to the credit of the road and bridge fund where it is badly needed. This will not increase taxes but will result in a more workable division of the present tax dollar.

The Court also will call an election for August 23 at its session here Thursday to prohibit the running at large of hogs, sheep and goats, in the following areas: Beginning at the new bridge over Little River, thence down the river to the Barzos, thence down to highway 43, thence west on Highway 43 to Milano, thence north on Highway 36 to place of begmning. The call results from a recent suit brought in District court revealing the need of regulation.

METHODIST WILL SPEND $5000 ON CHURCH HERE

Cameron Methodists will spend $5000 soon on their church with a decoration job on the auditorium.

The church was built in 1922 and this will be the first money spent on the building in 25 years. The church when built cost the congregation around $50,000 or more.

Rev. Lee Lemons, new pastor at the church, said a meeting was held Wednesday night to discuss these proposed improvements. A special committee has been named and another meeting is to be held this week.

Cameron Boy Adjudged Juvenile But Paroled To Parents Thursday

Doyle Corpier was adjudged a juvenile delinquent in District court here Thursday and paroled to his parents.

Doyle had quite an experience and tells this story: He had been to Marshall, Texas and was hitch-hiking back to Cameron. He came across a car parked on the highway and got in the car with the intention of going to sleep. After he had been in the car for some time, he notices the keys were in the switch slot, so he decided to drive it away.

Later far down the road home he picked up a man going to Austin. He decided to go on to Austin and visit his sister. He was arrested before he reached the capital city and was held on charge of driving the car without permission of the owner.

HOUSTON,—Mayor J. G. Philen of Hearne and R. E. Cornforth, president of the Hearne Chamber of Commerce, will be among the principal speakers at formal ceremonies scheduled Tuesday, July 29, to open Humble Oil & Refining Company's Hearne delivery terminal, located two and a half miles south of Hearne on State Highway 6.

The line, which has a capacity of 15,000 barrels a day, was formally opened in Irving on October 15, 1946. The following month delivery was begun by rail and transport truck from temporary facilities at the Hearne terminal site, thus linking one of the world's largest and most modern refineries with the heavy consuming areas of Central Texas. During the next ten months construction proceeded on the buildings and facilities at the terminal until its completion this month. B. B. Young is in charge of operations at the Hearne terminal.

Following the formal ceremonies a barbecue supper will be served at the terminal grounds.

50 DEGREE TEMPERATURE WEATHER PANHANDLE

Weather ran hot and cool in Texas Tuesday.

While residents of Presidio on the border sweltered under a maximum of 107 degrees citizens of Texarkana in the state's northeast corner smiled under a high of only 73.

A .36 inch rain had something to do with the coolness at Texarkana, but mostly responsible was a mass of unseasonably cool air easing into the state from Arkansas and Missouri

At Wichita Falls it was only 80. Pampa had 81, Palestine and Dallas 84 and Tyler 95.

The U. S. weather bureau forecasts a gradual warming up of the state's "cool area" Wednesday with some clouds and possibly showers in the Panhandle.

Other maximum temperatures yesterday: Wink and Laredo 103 degrees, Salt Flat 102, Crystal City 100, San Antonio and Abilene 99, Big Springs and Junction 98, Brady and Lubbock 97, El Paso 96 and Del Rio, Austin and Victoria 95.

It will be cooler in Cameron Wednesday night and may be cloudy but no rain is in prospect.

PATRONS ARE ACTING TO MEET NEW CHALLENGE

Clarkson joined the march to better school facilities for children in Milam county by voting 20 to 0 to increase their maintenance school tax from 25c to 50c.

School children in the Clarkson area will now be eligible for transfer but if the local school is maintained students in the lower grades cannot transfer.

As the situation stood no pupil in the Clarkson district could transfer as long as the maintenance tax was 25c.

Some school boards are looking into the matter of whether it would not be cheaper to buy buses and close down the smaller schools and transport children to Cameron or to other schools.

In the case of the Salem district an error was made in the signature of some of the petitioners and the election had to be called for a later date which will be July 30.

Elections are yet to be held at Maysfield and Branchville and Salem. The recent election at Maysfield authorized an increase in the maintenance tax but failed to hold the election for a refunding bond issue. The Herald erroneously printed the returns from this district.

Controversy, as usual, results at Cameron. Families living within a few yards of the city limits have been circulating a petition to ask for annexation. Some 29 to 30 children are involved. There is considerable opposition to the proposal since the tax increase would be $1.75 on the hundred valuation. However, the cost to transfer a child is $30 and where two children are in a family and eligible for the lower grades and transfer the tax would not exceed and would be less than the transfer charges.

Admission to the city limits would curtail insurance costs but no other advantages would accrue since all have every advantage, including fire protection but in many places no mains or plugs. The city government has indicated it will be willing to include the territory in the city limits.

Wesley Pratt and Fritzene Sump were married at the home of Rev. McClarren who conducted the ceremony. The couple were married at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The bride wore a white suit with white accessories. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sump of Giddings. Wesley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pratt of Marlow. He served two years in the Navy. The couple will make their home in Cameron.

New Car Registrations Hikes County State Income

INCREASE THIRD OVER SIMILAR 1939 PERIOD

By ED FLINN

Records at the County Tax Assessor's Office show a decided rise in the number of new cars bought and rate of registration fees since prewar years.

In 1939 during the period from January 1 to June 30, $62,562.31 was received for the registration of the new cars bought during that time. In comparison with this year the rate is definitely larger, $81,030.45 for the months of January to June, inclusive.

The rise in amount of registration fees is not totally accounted for by the increase in cars purchased. During the six months period in 1939, 5,880 cars were registered in Milam County, and in the same period in 1947, 6,267.

The change in the weight of vehicles during that eight year period is partly responsible for the rise in price. Another reason for the ascent is the 1 per cent Use Tax which went into effect in May 1941.

New Cars Registered July 11-21

July 11—Mary Belle Batte—1947 1 ton Express Dodge.

July 14—Doyle T. McCoy—1947 Dodge truck.

"Pursued" Exciting Drama of West Opens At Cameron July 24.

A penetrating and exciting glimpse into the majestic, gun-toting west of 1900 awaits those who visit the Cameron Theatre where Niven Busch's "Pursued," a Warner Bros.' release produced by United States Pictures, opens July 24. Starring Teresa Wright and Robert Mitchum, the rough and ready, suspenseful melodrama, alive with adventure and romance, also boasts a superb supporting cast that includes Judith Anderson, Dean Jagger, Alan Hale and a talented young newcomer, John Rodney.

"Pursued" is the two-fisted turbulent tale of the southwest when it was young, and of Jeb Rand (Robert Mitchum) who was persecuted and stalked by an unforgetting and unknown avenger. Jeb, raised by Mrs. Medora Callum (Judith Anderson) shares love and warmth with the two Callum children, Thorley (Teresa Wright) and Adam (John Rodney).

When Jeb matures, he and Thor confess their love for each other, as he enlists to fight in the Spanish-American War. Returning as a hero, Jeb quarrels bitterly with his foster-brother, who later is killed by jeb.

Continued persecution by unseen enemies embroils Jeb in further gun battles and everpresent fear for his life. How he is able to recapture his love and emerge free from mental torment, makes for vivid and absorbing screen entertainment.

Directed deftly and with vigor by Raoul Walsh, the film moves at a breathtaking pace from start to finish.

A post card from Magnetic Hill, New Brunswick, has reached the Herald from Bill Marek who says "seeing is believing." It really works. A sign near the hill says "proceed to spot indicated by white post, shut off motor and release brakes. Your car is backed up a steep hill. This phenomenon is one of the great mysteries of the interesting lands being traveled by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marek and daughter, Billie, now touring the far northwest on their vacation.

LO! THE POOR INDIAN

Have you ever visited a western Indian reservation and seen how the "noble redman" spends his days? He squats in the dusty doorway of his pueblo, flea-bitten dogs and dirty children swarming around him, and waits expectantly for the gullible tourist to hand him a half dollar for the privilege of snapping his picture. The kids are on the alert for their handout too. They've been taught to hop around in a circle, uttering miniature war whoops, while papa beats a tom-tom.

Papa Hiawatha wears a cheap, plaid cotton blanket tied around his hips for local color. The story goes that government officials have cut out the seat of his pants in order to make him wear the blanket—else why would anyone want to take his picture, and how could he come by an occasional four bits? Indians are people too, and they like their beer and cigarettes.

EVERYTHING FREE: WHY WORK?

It is said an eastern "go-getter" spied one of these "braves" lolling in the sun, and his Rotarian spirit rebelled at such display of do-nothingness. "Chief", remonstrated the go-getter, "why don't you get yourself a job?" "Why?" grunted the chief. "Well, you could earn a lot of money—maybe thirty or forty dollars a week." "Why?" grunted the chief. "Oh, if you worker hard and saved money, you'd soon have a bank account. Wouldn't you like that?" "Why?" grunted the chief. "For gosh sakes!" shouted the exasperated go-getter, "with a big bank account you could retire and then you wouldn't have to work any more . . . " "Not working now," the Indian pointed out.

As a matter of fact no one ever saw a reservation Indian work, and for good reason. His minimum requirements of food, shelter and clothing have been given him for years by the government, and he has lost all incentive to acquire anything more. He and all his fellows live exactly alike, and it isn't a high standard of living. The pueblo is a communal dwelling which houses about a hundred families, and you climb outside ladders to get to your unit if it happens to be on an upper level. Indian squaws wash their clothes in a common stream that flows through the reservation, and they cook in the fireplace or in an outdoor abode oven. It's all quite picturesque, but not very convenient or sanitary. Maybe we should be glad the Indians don't know anything about washing machines and refrigerators, since we taxpayers are footing the bills.

NO THANKS, WE HAVE ONE

Generations of this sort of planned "social security" have made the American Indian a dependent, a public charge. It isn't his fault if he's lazy and indifferent. Only when an unusually ambitious young Indian occasionally breaks loose from his traditions and attends an outside school does he amount to anything. It is said if he ever returns to the reservation for any length of time he slips back into the old life, and easily forgets modern civilization.

There are a good many people in this country today who are urging upon us some such plan of government-owned and government-distributed wealth. We are told we'll all have an equal standard of living. They don't go into details of what that standard will be. So far we have been smart enough, thank heaven, to tell them we just ain't buying any.—Tucklings.

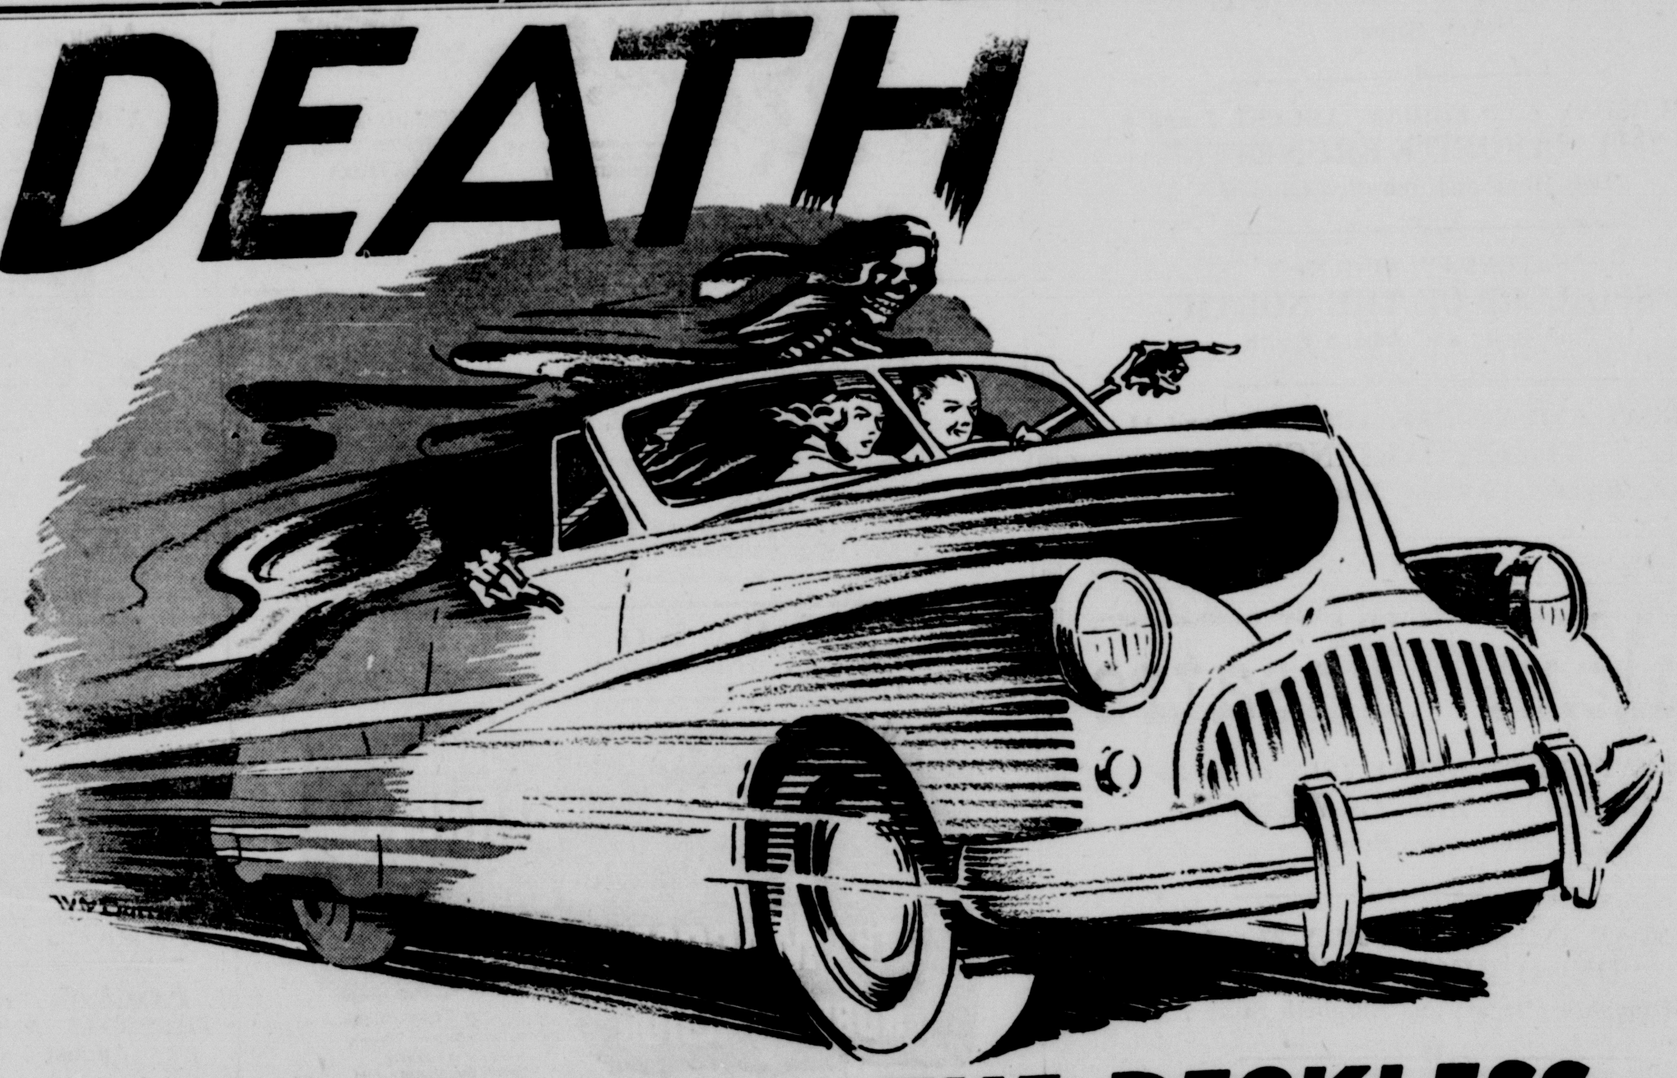
DEATH



RIDES WITH THE RECKLESS

One-fou of all fatal accidents on the highways of our country and in the streets of our cities and towns are caused by speed. Reckless drivers—disregarding all the laws of traffic safety and common sense, urging onward automobiles catapulted by the power of a hundred horses—these were the prime killers in 1946.

Last year 33,500 persons—drivers, riders and pedestrians—died in automobile accidents. That's about one death every fifteen minutes. More than a million were injured, many of them maimed or crippled for life. This year the toll will be even greater, approaching an all-time high of 40,000 deaths—unless you, Mr. and Mrs. Driver, call off this daily rendezvous with Death.

You can do your part to help stop this highway slaughter by personally striving for an accident-free record. Drive carefully at all times. Be considerate of other drivers and pedestrians. Gauge your speed to highway conditions and traffic requirements.

Don't let Death hang over your shoulder and point the way to the morgue. Drive safely—and live!

1000 LETTERS ADDED TO THE PETITION

AUSTIN, July 17 —A large box filled with petitions and letters seeking full pardon from a two-year prison sentence given Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron today awaited consideration of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles.

The letters numbered approximately 1,000 and the petitions were said to bear between 18,000 and 20,000 names.

Dr. Newton was convicted on a charge of assault to murder on Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield. He personally brought in most of the petitions and letters last week, Board Chairman Abner Lewis said.

The petition and letters were said to bear over 30,000 names.

This county and territory can ill afford to spare Dr. Newton at this time.

It is generally conceded throughout East Texas, North Texas, South Texas and Central Texas that Dr. Newton is innocent, and this is an opportunity for Gov. Jester and the Board of Pardons to rectify a great wrong by acting favorably in granting a full pardon. Such action in a case of this sort is the purpose for which the Board of Pardons were created, and such action will meet with widespread public approval.

Dr. Newton is on a 30-day emergency reprieve granted by Gov. Beauford Jester July 1 to prevent jeopardizing the lives of the Cameron physician's patients. The reprieve came after the Court of Criminal Appeals on April 23 affirmed the conviction, the second after three trials. The first conviction had given him a seven year sentence but the Court of Criminal Appeals remanded the case for new trial. The jury failed to reach a verdict on the second trial.

Court records show the shooting which Dr. Newton was charged occurred on a road near Littlefield about midnight May 21, 1942, as Dr. Hunt was approaching a car in which Mrs. Ruth Newton, wife of Dr. Newton, was seated.

The appeal court noted that trial court testimony conflicted as to the whereabouts of Dr. Newton on the night of the shooting but held that it had been the responsibility of the trial court to decide the true facts, binding the appeal court.

The petition to the Board of Pardons said:

"Believing Dr. W. R. Newton to be innocent of the crime of which he is convicted, believing in the integrity and veracity of the many Christian witnesses who testified that Dr. Newton was at a time and place which would have made it impossible for him t ohave committed the crime, believing Dr. Newton to have been the victim of persecution and a gross miscarriage of justice, believing him to be vitally essential to his community in the capacity of a physician and surgeon and in the supervision of a charitable fifty bed hospital which he has built and donated to the community, and believing it is your power and duty at this time to right a great wrong, we recommend and request that Dr. Newton be granted a full and complete pardon with restoration of citizenship."

The letters came from lawyers, business men, doctors, housewives, private citizens from Dallas, Waco, Temple, Giddings and scores of other towns in North Central Texas.

Judge Lewis said that the board would continue to hear and study whatever is offered in the case up until a final decision is reached, expected to be about the middle of next week.

SLIGHT PROSPECT FOR RAIN IS FORECAST

There is a remote possibility that rain might fall but it is certain to be a little cooler by Saturday or late Friday.

A five to 10 degree drop in temperature means a lot when it has been so hot. Not much relief in sight but there is going to be a little change.

A mass of cold air was behind a slightly less cool front that had moved into Fort Worth early Friday. The change was accompanied by a few thunder showers in the north and far western sections.

There was a 20 degree drop at Fort Worth from a 102 high on Thursday.

East and south Texas were in for clear skies again Friday and there was to be no relief from the high temperatures. Drouth was becoming serious in many sections. Grass hoppers were reported devouring some crops in Milam county this week.

Rev. A. C. Woods, pastor of Marlin and four of the members there, and Rev. W. D. Brooks of Madisonville and wife attended the meeting of the Assembly of God Thursday night.

A Statement To Our Customers About Resale

PRICES of PRODUCTS

Built by International Harvester Company

Here at Harvester we are concerned over the fact that a growing number of our products are appearing on the resale market at greatly inflated prices.

As manufacturers, we try to produce at the lowest possible cost. We cannot set the prices at which our products—tractors, motor trucks, farm implements, refrigeration, and industrial power equipment—are sold. We can and do suggest list prices which the great majority of our dealers adopt as their retail prices.

$20,000,000 Price Reduction

Our basic price policy was publicly stated in March, 1947, when we announced price reductions at the rate of approximately $20,000,000 per year on our products. At that time, Fowler McCormick, Chairman of the Board, said: "ANY PRICE IS TOO HIGH IF IT CAN BE REDUCED."

Practically all of our dealers cooperated with this policy and passed on the savings to their customers.

The objective of the price reductions was to make it possible for customers to buy our products, which they need so badly, at lower prices. Naturally, this purpose is defeated when our products are sold by anybody at inflated prices.

IH Production at All-Time Peak

Inflated prices are caused by the difference between supply and demand. To increase supply, we now have the greatest number of employes in history on our payrolls—almost 90,000 in the United States, as against about 60,000 prewar. Large new plants are getting into production in Louisville, Evansville, and Melrose Park. A fourth will soon be in operation in Memphis. The men and women now employed are turning out the greatest quantities of IH products of all kinds that we have ever made. These are also the finest products we have ever made, and recognition of that fact is an important contributing factor to the demand for them.

Distribution to Dealers

But even record-breaking production is not sufficient to give your dealer—and other IH dealers—enough products to meet today's demand. We have tried to make the fairest possible geographical allocation of our products so that every dealer would get a fair share, and we know that dealers, in most cases, have tried earnestly to make the fairest possible distribution to their customers.

But we also know that many of our products—far too many—are being resold at inflated prices. The public criticism and resentment of these resales are of real concern to us, as we know they must be to our dealers, because such reactions endanger the good will of both the dealer and the Company in any community.

Distribution to Customers

Experience shows that many IH new products are being resold by users who decide they can continue to make out with their old equipment after they have had an inflated offer for their new equipment. To eliminate this, many dealers are taking measures to be sure that equipment purchased is for their customers' own use and is not to be resold.

Nearly all IH dealers, we believe, are now using the basis of PRESENT NEED as their primary guide for the sale of scarce products. The customer whose need is real and urgent is not likely to resell.

What Price Should You Pay?

While it may take a little more time to get delivery, we urge our customers to consider all of the factors mentioned here, before paying more than the list price for any IH product. Any IH dealer or branch can furnish the suggested list price for any IH product.

We know that the overwhelming majority of IH dealers are as much opposed to inflated prices as we are. In the public interest, we have already asked their cooperation—and are now asking the cooperation of customers—in correcting this situation.

Texas Power & Light Pioneered Rural Electrification in Texas

The Texas Power & Light Company began its rural electrification program back in 1915. By 1921, we had brought electricity to 6,926 farm and rural families. This number has almost doubled every ten years since, as we consistently added more and more lines, reaching a greater number of farm families each year. Now, approximately 7,000 miles of TP&L rural lines alone serve more than 68,000 farm and rural customers.

More than thirty years of research, development and experience have shown our engineers the most economical way to extend these rural lines. As a result, we have been able to provide dependable, low-cost rural electric service to farms and rural homes throughout the 52-county area served.

The Company also supplies electric power at wholesale to 21 REA Distribution Cooperatives which in turn serve many thousands of additional rural and farm homes. The rate at which this Company supplies service to these Cooperatives is one of the lowest in the nation, and is lower than that of the Tennessee Valley Authority to Cooperatives in its area.

A continuous rural expansion program is being carried out in North, East and Central Texas by Texas Power & Light Company, and 1947 plans call for the construction of 1,000 miles of new rural lines to serve approximately 9,000 new customers living on farms and in rural communities.

TEXAS LEADING IN MEAT PRODUCTION

Texas led 45 other states in meat production last year, according to a statement just issued by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Proof of the outstanding role of Texas as a livestock and meat state is also revealed by figures showing that the cash income received by from meat animals its ranchers and farmers in 1946 totalled $398,699,000. Of this total, $315,109,000 was received from cattle sales, $50,838,000 from the sale of hogs and $32,752,00 from the sale of sheep and lambs.

Calling attention to the national livestock and meat picture, the Board asserts that 1946 was the fifth consecutive year in which meat production exceeds 20 billion pounds, the meat output for the year reaching 22 billion, 961 million pounds. To produce this meat supply 131,050,000 cattle hogs and sheep were marketed and processed.

Meat consumption in the United States is on the increase, the Board points out. Civilian consumption of meat in 1946 reached an all-time high with a total of 21 billion, 234 million pounds—or an average of 60 million pounds per day.

Showing further the upward trend in the use of meat on America's tables is the fact that the per capita consumption of this food product last year was 152.8 pounds—27 pounds more per person than was consumed annually in the pre-war period, 1935-39.

ESSENTIAL TO ROAD BUILDING HE SAYS

AUSTIN, July 21—Gov. Beauford H. Jester tonight called on individual and organized Texans to join in a finish fight for federal legislation to protect school-owned Tidelands from reverting to federal ownership.

In a 15-minute radio report (Texas Quality Network) marking the end of his first six months in office as governor, Jester also:

Urged adoption of the county unit plan for farm to market road building for co-operative state-county development of arteries of this type.

Expressed hope that tomorrow's meeting of the education finance commission authorized by the 50th legislature would produce "a sound and enduring plan" to be presented to the next session for the advancement of public school education in Texas.

Noted that the highway commission tomorrow will let contracts for rural roads to cost an estimated $9,000,000, the second largest letting of its kind in history.

Called attention to the fact that increased revenue from the gasoline tax will give the state a surplus of $6,600,000 in the road bond indebtedness fund Aug. 31 and that the state would use its half exclusively for building farm-to-market roads. He anticipated a surplus of $12,000,000 in this fund by 1957.

WEATHER SPORTSCOPE REVEALS BIG FROLIC

In case you don't know the weather was on quite a rampage Friday.

It was 100 degrees in Cameron. From 5 p. m. to midnight there was a 26 degree drop in temperature and .10 inches of rain fell.

The cold front broke out of its environs early Friday and brought 60 degree temperatures to some sections of the upper Panhandle and west.

Forecasts for the week end is a gradual rise in temperature with decreasing cloudiness.

Some sections were most fortunate. Waco got two and a half inches of rain and other sections reported more than an inch.

It is going to be hot Sunday. Some rain is due but not likely to reach this area.

60 DEGREES RECORDED IN PANHANDLE MONDAY

Cool weather in July is something new under the sun. Mild northers in late August are expected as well as the hottest days of the year in September, but this cool weather in July is causing a sensation.

A cool air mass broke through the Panhandle and north plains areas late Sunday and a low of 60 degrees was recorded in some places.

The sudden weather change brought some rain. The cold air seemed to be moving east and had hit Wichita Falls at 7 a. m. Monday.

Slightly lower temperatures were expected in central Texas Monday and it might become much cooler Monday night and Tuesday morning. Rain was not beyond a possibility. Effects of the cool air mass were felt in Cameron Sunday night. The open air enthusiasts who like their oxygen right out of the star trenches report one of the coldest nights of the summer with some moisture.

Humidity has been reduced to a bare minimum as a result of the heat and continued sunshine.

Texas in general was parching in summer's big red sun. Crops, especially cotton, were maturing fast and production may be cut. Insects perils were cut some 3 per cent last week. The only menace that caused concern was grass hoppers.

Orthopterous 7 Inches Long Caught Here; Its That Magic Climate

An insect of the genus orthopterous, 7 inches long, was caught here Friday by an attendant at the W. A. L. Robinson service station and placed in a fruit jar.

These insects are better known as the Praying-mantis, or Mantis Religiosa, and are quite common but not so large as the one caught here. They are harmless but sometimes frighten people by seeming to attack.

They are called the Praying-mantis because of the peculiar supplicating manner in which they elevate their antena or front legs. Their forms are grotsque and often are able to elude observation, as the tree frog, because of the resemblance in their color to the trees and plants on which they live.

The mantis was brought to The Herald for identification.

Bethlehem and Millerton, approved by the city counicl this week for consolidation with the Rockdale school, became the fourth and fifth schools to be legally annexed by the Rockdale school system.

Seven buses will bring children of rural areas into Rockdale this fall. Including consolidations and contract schools, the Rockdale district now comprises approximately 140 square miles, according to C. M. Selman, sueprintendent.

Contract schools are Talbott Ridge, Pleasant Hill, Hamilton Chapel, Gay Hill and Bushdale. The Minerva white school has also been transferred to Rockdale by action of the Minerva school board.

Three brand new school buses will be put into operation this fall by the Rockdale school system. In all seven buses will operate into Rockdale, five of them operated by the school and two individaully owned. In addition to the three new buses Rockdale will add this year two others, both practically new, are school operated, giving the local school five modern vehicles. L. M. Kirchenwitz owns and operates his own bus serving Talbott Ridge and Bushdale, while C. P. Beard operates his Gay Hill bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Akers left Monday morning for an extended vacation. They planned to go to El Paso, Old Mexico, and other points of interest.

Hints To Cameron Enthusiasts

By ED FLINN

Now that warm weather is here, people have the urge to get out in the sun and snap a few pictures, and if they'd follow a few simple rules, those mug shots would be a 100 per cent better. Photo developers try to get the best possible print out of a negative, but many times there is an error which could have been prevented in the exposure. All cameras, from the simple box to the most complicated press, are precision instruments, and they should be stored during the winter, or when not in use, in a dry place, a shoe box would do.

Many spoiled pictures are ruined even before the exposure is made. When loading the camera, one should always look for the darkest place around. Light tends to get in under the protective covering of the film. Then the picture is fogged before it has a chance to be either good or bad.

With new apparatus developed during the war, a processer can often make a good print out of a poor negative, but to get perfect prints, amateurs should follow a few rules in taking their pictures:

1. Choose the right type of film. The best kind or ordinary use is Verichrome or Orthochrome.
2. Don't stand closer than eight feet to your subject when taking pictures with a box or fixed focus camera.
3. For best results, plan to take your pictures between 10 and 4 o'clock.
4. Hold your camera steady when you trip the shutter.
5. Clean the lens well before you load the camera.
6. Don't forget to roll the film after each exposure; many bad pictures result from double or triple exposures.

If everyone will take these hints seriously, his pictures will improve and taking pictures will give more satisfaction than ever to the amateur photographer.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

...."Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 27.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; . . . thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth" (Isaiah 25:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he" (Deuteronomy 32:4).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth; yet God is Truth" (page 312).

Farmers Market Must Be Built Here; Can And Should Be Done

A farmers market, a good one with sanitary and display facilities must be built in Cameron.

A market of this sort is so badly needed, it should be built at once, this fall and winter to be ready for next spring and summer when the marketing association gets under way.

Melon trucks along the curbs at the court house square tell a story of poor methods. These farmers are selling melons, cantaloupes, fruit and vegetables. Across from The Herald plant one may see the number who stop for a good melon.

It is unfair to these producers not to provide here a good market, not a make shift affair, but one designed for the kind of merchandising so badly needed.

Does Advertising Pay?

A foolish Question

More than any other factor in commerce whether it be manufacturing or retailing, Advertising has paid more dividends than any other dollar ever spent by business men.

Does Advertising Pay? A foolish question, yet the way some men treat their business, it is not surprising that some may guess they ponder the question.

Consisent space buying in your home town newspaper is the best investment you ever made, should be wisely done, properly prepared and be backed up with merchandise.

More money is spent for newspaper advertising than for any other commodity in the world. Quite a fact, don't you think? There's no better proof—and there is no substitute for newspaper advertising.

GRAZIANO WINS OVER ZALE FOR THE TITLE

By WALLACE COLLINS

Last night Rocky Graziano held a technical knock-out over Tony Zale at Chicago.

In their previous fight Zale knocked out Graziano in the sixth round as in last nights fight. Zale had a slight weight advantage but was older. Zale weighed in at 159 and Graziano 155 1-4 pounds.

In the first round Zale pounded Graziano hard and Graziano fought back but was overcome by the hard hitting Tonny. Zale completely carried the round. It was one of the best rounds of the fight with plenty action from both fighters. Graziano finished the round with a cut over the left eye which bothered him a lot.

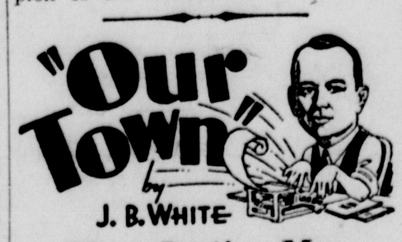
In the second round Graziano had many flurries which serously threatened Zale but Zale punched hard to make the round about even.

Both boxers came out quickly in the third round and Zale threw rights and lefts heavily again. Early in the round hard punches put Graziano down but got up quickly. Zale outpunched Graziano badly to take the round. That was a bad round for Graziano because both eye's were partly closed from the hard punches.

In the fourth Zale completely took the round but didn't punch as hard as his previous rounds. Early in the round Zale slipped down but bounced back up and continued. Zale out hitting with lighter punches.

Graziano looked much better in the fifth. His vision much better and was punching on an even basis with Zale. Both had swinging flurries in the early rounds. As the round ended honors were about even and Graziano worried Zale very much.

In the sixth and final round both came out quickly and punches were about even until the round was half over and Graziano had a tremendous hitting flurry which drove Zale across the ring. After continued heavy punching by Graziano the referee called the fight after two minutes and ten seconds of the round. Zale was so tired he could hardly hold his hands up. It was a great fight for Graziano. He made a great comeback to become the middle weight champion of the world.



That Justice May Yet Be Done

Petitions have been filed with the Board of Pardons at Austin asking for recommendations of a pardon to the Governor, by many Texans in behalf of Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron who was never given a chance to prove his innocence before a fair and impartial jury. Dr. Newton was charged with attempt to kill Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield on the night of May 21, 1942.

The initial number of petitions bear the signatures of some 23,000 persons who have read the evidence in the case or know of its true significance. Additional petitions, to be filed, or that have been filed since the initial pleas, together with some 2000 additional letters from prominent men and women throughout all sections of Texas, certain portions of West Texas excepted, will bring the plea in behalf of Dr. Newton from well over 30 thousand, notably in the areas where he is best known and appreciated. It is significantly important that some 80 per cent of the representative adult population of Milam county joined in the plea for clemency.

Dr. Newton was tried three times, twice convicted, the last time at Tulia and given 2 years in prison. A hung jury was had at Plainview in the second trial. The Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the verdict of the Tulia jury and Dr. Newton was faced with a prison term of two years. The Board of Pardons and the Governor granted a 30 day reprieve so that patients needing surgery and medical care, might have Dr. Newton for a few weeks.

The people—more than 30,000 of them, in a spontaneous plea, the extent of which may well be a record protest, did the only thing a sense of conviction of outrage, could dictate.

Dr. Newton was tried and convicted in an atmosphere and under conditions that put to shame the commonest conception of both fairness and justice. It was mob rule, senseless and pre-conceived and without proper deference to the facts in the case. So bent are those who felt the necessity to convict someone—just anyone—that statements in newspapers have been published appealing to the people to protest any sign of mercy to Dr. Newton. In view of this turn of events it would not seem out of place if a newspaper, or newspapers in the home area of Dr. Newton, should tell the plain truth about the case.

Anyone familiar with the facts in the case would know that some 18 witnesses testified that they saw Dr. Newton at a time and under such circumstances that it would have been, and was impossible, for him to be in Littlefield at the time of the alleged shooting.

Knowing the people who so testified, it would be an incredible conclusion to question these facts. As late as 6 p. m. and later, some 4 to 5 hours before the time the state's attorney charged the shooting occured, Dr. Newton was actually treating patients in his clinic and was seen in Cameron. The uncontroverted testimony supplied by the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Compnay showing that Dr. Newton called his clinic from Houston at 7 a. m. on the morning of May 21, 1942, some 800 miles away from the scene of the wounding of Dr. Roy Hunt, is among the outstanding defense facts which were so ruthlessly cast aside in the area of the court where Dr. Newton was again and again denied a change of venue.

This is unimportant, but illustrative. Witnesses, under summons and rule of the court, dozens of them, were refused their fees and mileage, after the trial at Tulia. Many of them had been paid twice or three times before. If it was wrong to pay them at Tulia it was wrong to pay them at Olton in 1942. In one case a material witness (for the defense of course) lost about $150 in making that trip of over 1000 miles, going and coming.

Dr. Newton has suffered ten thousand times more than a stern justice might exact in 2 years, if he were guilty. The fact that he has so suffered, coupled with the thought that under the most favorable consideration of the facts upon which he was convicted, there can be little justification in carrying out this sentence, just to satisfy those who feel a deep sense of frustration over failure to get the right man who shot Dr. Hunt.

Few circustances in history have justified the removal of a Doctor from his practice, even for a short time. Dr. Newton is needed here and some 30 thousand or more have said so. He is innocent of the charge on which he was convicted. Some 30 thousand have said so. The facts in the case warranted a verdict of not guilty at Tulia, at Olton and at Plainview. Some 30 thousand or more good people have said so. Better that ten thousand guilty go free than one innocent man suffer.

The Board of Pardons was created for the exercise of clemency in this kind of case. Where the facts are so preponderant in favor of the accused, it would seem a privilege to say so. To do otherwise promotes, in the long run, disrespect for the law and the courts.

Members of the Board of Pardons are men of good judgment and would not have been named to the place, had they not been found to possess these qualifications. They have an opportunity in this case to justify the faith of more than 30 thousand people who plead to-day for Dr. Newton.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's "Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes . . . but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that mellow, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes—to give us sun and air and freedom—will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

TEXAS HIGHWAY MILEAGE QUADRUPLED SINCE 1929

AUSTIN, July 21—Reviewing the activities of the Texas Highway Department now entering its 30th year as the state's road building agency, Commission Chairman John S. Redditt reported paved mileage on the state system had more than quadrupled since it was first accurately measured in 1929.

The endless struggle to build new roads as fast as traffic demand increased has shoved the 1929 paved mileage of 6,061 up to 25,734 miles on July 1, with more being added every day.

"This still isn't enough," Redditt declared. "The blight of congestion and hazards to safety on many sections of these paved roads render them inadequate to handle the heavy traffic using them."

He expressed confidence that the Commission's recent expanded policy for building farm-to-market roads on a cooperative basis with counties, together with the current federal aid program, would result in substantial improvements to the state's farm transportation problem.

The total investment in the state road network stood at $934 197,811.55 on July 1, Redditt announced. This includes all expenditures made under the supervision of the Texas Highway Department since it was created thirty years ago.

"It has been a good investment," he said. "I doubt if any other similar expenditure of public funds has done so much good for as many people."

The Chairman paid tribute to the thousands of employees who had built the organization into one of the top road building agencies of the nation. "Of the 7,663 employees on the payroll today, 2,278 have been with us for ten years or more, while 100 have served the Department 25 years or more. Only one has completed 30 years of service, but two others are approaching the 30 year mark."

"This organization has made it possible for Texas to maintain its place at the top among the states of the nation in carrying out a vast postwar construction program. Today work is progressing on contracts in excess of $77,000,000, a volume that has never before been reached in the Department's history."

Ed. Flinn, Student in Journalsm, Writing For Daily Herald

Ed Flinn, student in Journalism at the University of Texas, and home for the summer, has been assigned to write a series of feature and news stories for the Daily Herald.

Flinn, graduate of Yoe High School is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flinn of Cameron. He likes his work in Journalism at the University and is getting on with the job. Students with news and feature story writing assignments, often get their stories published in the Daily Texan.

Reportorial assignments take them to many places about Austin, and to see many interesting people. The work is quite similar to that encountered in actual newspaper experience.

Flinn's first story is about auto registrations during the past 6 months.

TRUMAN CONFINES HIS PLEA TO MISSISSIPPI

Flood control in the watershed of the Brazos River in Texas seemed out of the picture Thursday as President Truman confined his recommendation to the Mississippi basin and its tributaries.

Congressman Poage in Washington who had written the President making a plea for the Brazos and Little River water sheds, expressed keen disappointment when the message to Congress was read.

The President asked for a 10 year program with an initial 250 million dollar appropriation.

Redemption of farm lands in this area now seems a remote possibility.

STUDENT TRANSFERS ARE DUE THIS MONTH

Transfer of students for the fall term of school is due in July and is important and patrons are cautioned not to overlook the matter.

Chas. M. Hicks, county superintendent, calls attention to the importance of transfers due in July.

The new law which is in effect prohibits transfers where the same grade is taught at home, does not apply if the grade is not taught at home.

The receiving school must transfer in order to count such pupils on their teacher-pupil quota. All high schools in Milam county will be state aid during the coming school term and parents are urged to transfer their children.

This may be done at the office of the County Superintendent or at the office of any high school superintendent.

TRUCKS COMING HERE FROM MANY STATES

Milam county's watermelon crop, said to be the best in years, was moving to-day.

Trucks from a number of states, notably from Missouri and Oklahoma are keeping the highways filled with traffic getting the melons to the market.

One depressing factor is the price. Choice melons were having to go at 1c and a little above as conflict demands with the South Texas melons of an inferior grade, cluttered up the market.

Melon growers here were a bit pessimistic and called for the greatest possible local consumption of melons.

Hundreds of car cloads of melons will be shipped and trucked out of the county from Cameron, Milano, Rockdale and Thorndale. The acreage is large.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Marker Dedicated to Michael and Martha Reed Who Came to Texas With Robertson's Colony; Early Bell County History Is Related

By JAMES KNIGHT

ROGERS, July 13 —Only a few yards from the banks of Little River near Rogers, where Michael and Martha Reed, two of Bell County's earliest settlers, are buried, 200 descendants gathered Sunday afternoon to pay tribute to their lives and unveil a monument dedicated to them.

Underbrush had been cut away in the almost jungle-like thickness where the couple, together with an infant son, were buried many years ago. But enough history was centered in that thicket Sunday to make a volume on the subject of the Reed family. Relatives came from Arizona, from California, and even from Florida for the first family gathering in history.

Michael and Martha Reed came to Texas with the Robertson Colony, a group composed of Kentucky and Tennessee residents who had petitioned the Mexican Government in 1822 for a land grant. Malcolm D. McLean of Austin, great-great-grandson of Michael Reed, said Reed received a league of land, which at that time comprised 4,428 acres. So in the early 1830s the Reed family came to Texas and, acording to the story, they carried everything they owned on their backs for 75 miles.

But even after reaching Texas things weren't to go smoothly for the Reeds, for in 1836 the War with Mexico brought enemy soldiers to Bell County and the settlers were forced to join in the Runaway Scrape to avoid danger, abandoning their homes their crops, and all that they possessed. The warning that saved the family came from William C. Sparks, who blew a bugle from the top of a hill near Rogers.

Michael and Martha Reed and their family did not come back to Bell County after the victory over Mexico until 1845. Other families who had returned immediately after the war had found that the Indians had been stirred up by the Mexicans and there were battles going on between the tribes and the settlers constantly.

Mrs. Reed died in 1855 and Mr. Reed followed in 1859. He was buried in the pasture where his cattle, of which he was so proud, grazed. It was his request that he be placed where the animals he loved so well would walk over his grave. Today the portion of land is still a pasture, shaded by a thick growth of trees on the bank of the river. Mike Reed of Dallas acted as master of ceremonies. He introduced descendants who told different phases of the development of the land owned by the Reed family.

The story of the Robertson Colony, of which Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reed were a part, was related by Malcolm D. McLean of Austin. The story of the coming of the Reeds to Texas was told by Mrs. Stella McKay Mewhinney of Buckholts who played a large part in the two-year period of work involved in obtaining the stone monument.

The home life of Michael and Martha Reed was given by Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp of Cameron. She told the first entertainment feature to arrive at the home—a man with a monkey. The entertainer also had a box containing pictures of Broadway and New York and other parts of the United States too far removed to dream of.

Just over the hill from the dedication ceremony, W. S. Reed, now 90, the only living grandson of Michael Reed, sat on the porch of the second home his grandparents constructed there. The old geltleman was too feeble to attend the ceremony, but he stood and gazed across the field, where only a few hundred yards, stood the first log house Michael Reed built. Besides serving as the Reed home, the log cabin was the second quartermaster post in Bell County. It stands as straight now as a modern brick building and the huge stone chimney looks as if it would last an eternity.

Down near the river W. S. Reed's grandson was unveiling the marker dedicated to Michael and Martha Reed, ancestors of nearly 100 years before. W. S. Reed and son, Houston Reed, and grandson, Donald—three generations—are still living on the same land obtained by their ancestors over a century ago.

The crowds began to disappear about 5 o'clock, but the atmosphere of pride—family pride—will linger in that spot forever. Each departing relative would first look back to that spot where Michael and Martha Reed rest in peace. Then they would smile as if to say, "Thanks for helping to make Texas such a wonderful place to live."

Mrs. Oscar Patillo, Mrs. Bonnell Hawks and daughter, Judy, and Mrs. Leona G. White made a business trip to Marlin Tuesday.
